Please tell us briefly your reasons for joining the Society. For instance, you may be interested in learning more about the Clan in general, tracing your own family history, attending Highland Gatherings, actively helping the Society, or simply happy to receive the quarterly newsletter. You might also have a particular interest e.g. highland music, dancing etc., or have family who have already joined our Society.

Please provide a summary of your Clan ancestry below.

I understand that genealogical information on non-living persons may be published on the Internet.
